STAYCATION ITINERARY

Are you a 757 native who hasn't fully explored Norfolk? This itinerary is here to guide you to the most unique experiences our city has to offer! Whether it's a day trip or you decide to spend the night, you are sure to feel like you had a mini-vacation with all our city has to offer.

HOTELS

The city offers options for every preference and budget, from downtown high-rise hotels to quaint bed and breakfasts, and everything in between. No matter where you stay, expect a comfortable visit packed with Virginia hospitality.

GLASS BLOWING CLASS

Norfolk's very own glass blowing studio, Perry Glass Studio, is where you can witness professional glassblowers creating masterpieces through free demonstrations or take a class for amateurs by creating simplistic decorations, like coasters or ornaments.

EXPERIENCE OUR DISCOUNT PASSES

Looking for a deal? Pack savings into your trip with coupons and special money-saving packages from our travel partners. We have a few passes on our site now for you to take advantage of like our Brew Hop Pass and Discover Downtown Pass but we are continually adding in passes so be sure to check our packages webpage for the most up-to-date passes.

EAT SOUTHERN BBQ

Step outside of your own backyard and let the professional BBQ pitmasters smoke up something delicious for you at one of Norfolk's best BBQ restaurants. Some of the top BBQ joints, serving up the town's best comfort food are Bar-Q, Redwood Smoke Shack and the Fishin' Pig.

EXPLORE THE ELIZABETH RIVER TRAIL

This 10.5-mile urban biking and pedestrian trail runs adjacent to Downtown and is a great way to see Norfolk from a different view. Bike, walk or jog along the waterfront through Norfolk's neighborhoods where you can pick up food to go or a local craft beer.

TAKE A GUIDED TOUR

Norfolk Tour Company gives guided tours of Downtown Norfolk, NEON District, Ghent, Freemason, Norfolk's culinary and cocktail scene, as well as step-on services throughout Hampton Roads. The company continues to expand its tour offerings and even offers some free tours each month! For a complete list of their tour services please visit their website toursofnorfolk.com.

HERMITAGE MUSEUM AND GARDENS

The Hermitage Museum and Gardens, free to the public, consists of an early 20th-century historic house museum with a worldwide art collection and contemporary exhibition galleries, surrounded by twelve acres of formal gardens and natural woodlands; educational wetlands; and a Visual Arts School.

ATTEND A SHOW

Norfolk has a great appreciation for the performing arts. Norfolk is home to the Virginia Opera, Virginia Arts Festival and Virginia Symphony. Also make sure you check out the schedule for Norfolk Broadway shows at Chrysler Hall.
